SCHOOL NEWS

St. John Vianney School has five learning expectations for our students: Catholic Learner, Communicator, Competent Learner, Critical and Creative Thinker, and Caring Citizen. For August our focus was on being a Catholic Learner: one who knows Catholicism, is kind and helpful, prays daily and participates in Mass. Congratulations to the student in each class who received an award at morning assembly. Next month we're on to our Schoolwide Learning Expectation of being a good Communicator.

Our fourth-grade class is excited to begin a mini Christmas tree project. They will be repotting, watering and nurturing fifty trees until December, when they will go on sale during the holiday season. Many thanks to the parents who donated all the necessary materials needed to set up a hothouse behind Fr. Vincent's house. With the support from several wonderful people, we are able to engage in this awesome project. Watch for news of our Christmas tree sale as we get closer to the holidays!

RENEWAL OF VOWS

Congratulations to James and Norma Meyer on their 55th wedding anniversary. They renewed their vows at the 11 a.m. Mass, Sunday, August 27, 2023.

Good and gracious God, you are always faithful in your love for us. Look mercifully upon Norma and James who have come again seeking your blessing. Let your Holy Spirit rest upon them so that with steadfast love they may honor the promises they made once before and reaffirm this day, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "...where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we help them to know that indeed "God is in the midst of them."

LISA GOMES APPOINTED NEW DIRECTOR OF FAITH FORMATION

Excerpted from the Hawaii Catholic Herald, Aug 30, 2023

Bishop Larry Silva appointed Gomes, the present diocesan director of the Office for Youth and Young Adult Ministry to the job formerly called the Director of Faith Formation on Sept. 1. She takes over from Jayne Ragasa-Mondoy who retired Aug. 31. Before that, the position was called the Director of Religious Education.

Gomes, who turned 50 in July, was born and raised in Wahiawa, the oldest of three kids. She is a graduate of Leilehua High school. She received her undergraduate degree in mathematics from Chaminade University of Honolulu. When asked about it, she said that math's emphasis on "critical thinking" prepares one for life.

According to the diocesan job description, the Director of Evangelization and Catechesis "Provides leadership in facilitating evangelization initiatives and efforts in the diocese for the active and inactive members of the body of Christ, and for unchurched people by collaborating with parishes, schools, and pastoral agencies, initiating diocesan outreach activities and communicating a call for people to conversion and renewal."

Working with youth and young adult ministry for two decades has given her many years of teaching and ministry experience in Hawaii schools, parishes and in the Diocese of Honolulu at large.

Prior to her leadership position in youth and young adult ministry, Gomes was Associate Director, Office of Religious Education, diocesan Safe Environment Coordinator and Director of Religious Education and Faith Formation at St. Anthony Parish, Kailua.

GATHERING SONG God is Love (Leo: Makalapua)

Hymnal 234

1. Oh, the love of Christ has gathered us together. Let us rejoice in him and be glad. By this all shall know that we are his disciples; If we have love one for another.

God is love, and they who abide in love, Abide in God, and God abides in them.

2. Oh, if God has loved us so to send us his only Son, So we should, too, love one another. None of us has ever seen the face of God; Yet when we love, God dwells within us.

Hua 'ōlelo: Based on Epistle of John: Vrs. 1: Hanamaulu Collection (1970). Vrs. 2: Robert M. Mondoy (b.1952)

Leo: Makalapua, by Queen Lili'uokalani (1838-1917) [or associates] in 1888 or earlier after the song Would I Were With Thee (1850), by Carlo Bosetti. This arrangement by Robert M. Mondoy, ©1982

GLORY TO GOD

after Howard Hughes, SM ICEL Psalter, 1992, arr. R.M. RM 27.4

Glory to God in the highest, | and on earth peace to people of good will. || We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, ||| we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King, | O God, almighty Father. || Lord Jesus Christ, ||| Only Begotten Son, Lord God,

Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;|| you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; ||| you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, | you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, || with the Holy Spirit, ||| in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1. Come, sing with joy to God. Shout to our savior, our rock. Enter God's presence with praise, enter with shouting and with song, shouting and song.
2. Come, bow down and worship, kneel to the one who made us. This is our God, our shepherd; we are the flock led with care, led with care.
3. O, listen to God proclaiming; "Harden no heart when I speak. Do not repeat the deeds of Meribah, those of Masah, where your people tested, tested my love."

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

I Will Choose Christ

I will choose Christ I will choose love, I choose to serve.

I give my heart, I give my life, I give my all to you.

1. How many times must he call my name, and show to me that he is God? and as a servant he calls to me, "You must serve too."
2. Christ, my teacher and healer, teach my heart and heal my soul. and as I walk this road with you, teach me to love.
3. And as I look upon your cross, so must I die with you. And with the death of my own desires, I'll rise with you.

St. John Vianney Parish

Presents

A Eucharistic Revival

To renew us by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

The Eucharist Explained
In the Catechism of the Catholic Church

“All who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him” (CCC 1329).

A year long focus to further educate our parish community and the Kailua community about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist

1. (1327) In brief, the Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith: "Our way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking." In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained."
2. (1324) The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it.
3. (2181) The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.
4. (1415) Anyone who desires to receive Christ in Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without having received absolution in the sacrament of penance.
5. (1396) The unity of the Mystical Body: the Eucharist makes the Church. Those who receive the Eucharist are united more closely to Christ. Through it Christ unites them to all the faithful in one body - the Church.
6. (1387) To prepare for worthy reception of this sacrament, the faithful should fast for at least one hour. This means that we are not permitted to eat food or drink, except for medicine and water. Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest.
7. (2182) Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to his Church. The faithful give witness by this to their communion in faith and charity. Together they testify to God's holiness and their hope of salvation. They strengthen one another under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
8. (1524) In addition to the Anointing of the Sick, the Church offers those who are about to leave this life the Eucharist as viaticum. Communion in the body and blood of Christ, received at this moment of "passing over" to the Father, has a particular significance and importance. It is the seed of eternal life and the power of resurrection, according to the words of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day." The sacrament of Christ once dead and now risen, the Eucharist is here the sacrament of passing over from death to life, from this world to the Father.

Our Parish Faith Formation Committee encourages all parishioners to learn more about the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist

“ Come to Me,
all you who labor
and are burdened. **”
