Dear Parish Family,

The readings this Sunday call us to be inclusive. Realizing that they were closely associated with Jesus and were in quite a privileged position with healing powers, the disciples were not happy when they saw a man who was not a disciple cast out evil spirits. They were obviously quite jealous and indignant. They even tried to stop the man from doing a good thing. But Jesus tells them: "You must not stop him: ... Anyone who is not against us is for us." It is very easy for a chosen group to become elitist, to claim for itself a monopoly of doing good.

Yes, we Christians believe that the Church is God's special way of revealing himself to the world. But we really cannot go on to claim that therefore God, His truth and goodness is only to be found in the Church; that only among our ranks can people be "saved".

The truth is that God is doing his work through all kinds of people. In any government and society there are many good, dedicated and patently honest people who really serve the public. During the many catastrophes, natural and man-made, that have struck our world, we find people of faiths and no faith coming together. Surely God is present and working through such people. Christians clearly have no monopoly on loving others. And we can add that wherever there is true justice being practised, there is God; wherever there is true freedom being promoted or defended, there is God; wherever there is a person, perhaps a total stranger from another race or culture, who acts as a true brother or sister to any of us, there is God, and so on... We are all called to be truly embracing that which is truly good and become a brother or sister to one another in God's love.

Apologetics Without Apology Year of Reading the Bible

Numbers 11:25-29; James 5:1-6; Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

Scriptural Background: This Sunday's Gospel is a continuation of last week's reading (Mark 9:30-37). The disciples, rebuked by Jesus in their attempt to claim for themselves a prominent place in his Kingdom, resort to attacking a man who, while not of their own circle, is performing exorcisms in Jesus' name. Due to their own recently failed attempt at this type of healing (Mark 9:14-29), they may have felt a little insecure! Jesus urges tolerance for those who are not opposing him and, in a certain way, honor his name by acknowledging its power. He goes on to relate this to how all of his disciples (the "little ones") should be treated. He makes it abundantly clear that this is a serious matter with either reward (verse 41)—or dire consequences. Gehenna, or Valley of Hinnom, (to which Jesus refers in verses 43-45) was a small ravine outside of Jerusalem where during Israel's early history, child sacrifice had been offered to pagan gods, even by one of Israel's particularly evil kings, Ahaz (2 Chronicles 28:1-3). In Jesus time, as an unclean place, it was a dump where rubbish burned night and day, and had become proverbial as a metaphor for eternal punishment (Jeremiah 7:30-33).

Questions for Reflection:

- Looking at the Second Reading: how have you used your personal resources—such as money, influence, talent, or time—for the benefit of others? How might you seek God's wisdom to learn how you should use your resources?
- What does Jesus' application of the image of Gehenna tell you about the seriousness of how he regards the sin of scandal?

YEAR B

<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/092621.cfm>

Reading 1 Numbers 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses.

Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied. Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp.

They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent;

yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp.

So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp," Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said,

"Moses, my lord, stop them."

But Moses answered him,

"Are you jealous for my sake?"

Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!"

Reading II James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries.

Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like a fire.

You have stored up treasure for the last days.

Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter.

You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one; he offers you no resistance. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

Gospel Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us."

Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me.

For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.

"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off.

It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off.

It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out.

Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'"

School News

by Earl Walker

A team of teachers are preparing our 6th-8th grade students to participate in KeikiCo, a business plan contest hosted by American Savings Bank. The venture is a fantastic opportunity for our students to learn entrepreneurial skills and business writing. They will work with professionals and build connections to the community. It also will help to develop communication skills and financial literacy and possibly win a monetary prize for our school. Students who participated in this program in 2017 obtained a $10,000 award for the school, which was used for facility repairs. The goal of this venture is to develop a partnership with ASB allowing us to apply for grants and request service projects in the future.

Our school is looking for help in the kitchen, serving lunch and assisting with cleaning after. No experience needed. Work hours are 10 a.m.-1 p.m. on school days only. If anyone is interested, please contact the school office at (808) 261-4651.

What is Priesthood Sunday?

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International.

When is Priesthood Sunday celebrated?

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated on the last Sunday of September (September 26, 2021).

Why is Priesthood Sunday important?

Priesthood Sunday specifically honors priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered and Sacraments could not be celebrated.

Priesthood Sunday is a personal celebration for parishes and for those who cultivate close working relationships with their priests. It is a special day to express gratitude, and thank and honor priests in unique ways.

It is essential to note that the number of priests and ordinations in the United States has steadily declined in the past 50 years. The number of parishes without a resident priest pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and are working harder than ever before.

How we will celebrate Priesthood Sunday at St. John Vianney Kailua

- View a picture collage display at church this weekend.
- The general intercession prayers at Mass this weekend are dedicated to the priesthood.
- The general assembly will bless Fr. Peter Miti at Mass.
- View a special video of Fr. Peter on the parish YouTube channel.
- Show aloha to Fr. Peter for his vocation as Priest.

"The face of St. Vincent de Paul in St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa)"

The month of September is very dear to the Vincentians world-wide, because during this month the feasts of our founders St. Vincent de Paul, and 200 years later the society founder Bl. Frederic Ozanam are celebrated along with the feast of Mother Teresa of Calcutta, who like St. Vincent believed in putting into practice the teachings of Jesus Christ. She is the twentieth century's version of Saint Vincent de Paul (1581-1660),

In today's gospel Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone who gives you a drink of water because you belong to Christ will not, I assure you, go without his reward." On September 27, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. The members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are on the front line in laboring for the poor; they are among the first to know their real needs.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please suggest they leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at 808 456-7837...we want to help!

Think about joining us! The Society needs more volunteers. To join just indicate your interest online at the parish website or leave a message for us in the parish office or email us at: stvincentdepaul@rcchawaii.org A member will contact you.

Donations too, are always a very welcome surprise and necessity. One may donate online at the parish website click on the button for St. Vincent de Paul. You may also donate directly by check to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and mail to 920 Keolu Drive, Kailua 96734, or take to the parish office labeled St, Vincent de Paul, where it will be put in our mailbox.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION INTRODUCTION

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

It is a special time of prayer before the Eucharistic presence of Jesus. Jesus, in the form of the Consecrated Host, is placed inside the Monstrance in a clear window for us to see. Adoration is showing that we know God is truly God, our Savior, and the creator of everything that exists.

Is Jesus really present in the Blessed Sacrament?

Yes! Absolutely! The Consecrated Host is the real Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus, His true Presence, in the form of bread. Jesus did not say the Eucharist would be a symbol, He didn't say that it represents Him, He says the Eucharist IS Him! What an awesome gift we have been given, to be able to come before the very presence of our Lord Jesus. He is very real and He is here!

During the Adoration

The readings, songs and prayers recited during the Adoration are meant to direct attention to worship of Christ in the Eucharist. A prayerful spirit is encouraged by periods of silence and brief exhortations aimed at developing a better understanding of the mystery of the Eucharist. During this quiet time, we think, reflect, feel, or listen to Jesus. In adoration, we are before the very powerful and mighty Jesus who humbly appears before us in the form of the host.

Behavior Expectations

First and foremost: Reverence -- reverence for our King! Because Jesus will truly be present, we need to be sure to show Jesus proper respect and reverence because He is our King. We show Jesus respect and honor with our good behavior and our good posture when we sit and kneel. Be as quiet and still as possible before our Lord which includes avoiding talk -- even whispers.

Benediction

After a period of both silent reflections combined with meditative readings, Adoration concludes with the Benediction, when a priest or deacon blesses the people with the Eucharist. The celebrant puts on a humeral veil which is used to lift the monstrance for the blessing. Afterwards, the Eucharist is taken to the Church's tabernacle while a song is traditionally sung.

Our Adoration service typically lasts an hour. In fact, many Catholics refer to Adoration as The Holy Hour. While we hope you will stay for the entire service, it is perfectly acceptable to spend just a few minutes in Adoration.

First Saturday Eucharistic Devotion
Saturday, October 2 after the 8 a.m. Mass

The continuing rise of COVID-19 cases and its heart-breaking effects led to two Faith Action town hall meetings in September. There, members expressed their heartfelt concerns about the pandemic and shared ideas on how people of faith will be heard by the Governor. The result is a letter to the Governor. Below is a short version. The complete letter is at this website, faithactionhawaii.org.

A Letter to Governor Ige From Faith Action: “Translating Belief of Love into Action”

Dear Governor Ige,

As faith communities in Hawai‘i, we recognize the pain — physical, emotional, economic, and spiritual — being felt by many as a result of Covid19.

We know there are no easy answers. We know the foundation of all our religious beliefs is love — love for our Creator and for our neighbors as ourselves. Thus we feel compelled to take personal action and encourage additional action from you.

Translating belief into action, we pledge to become more vocal and more visible, and to take some or all of the following measures in the weeks and months ahead:

- Support mandatory vaccination as we preach from our pulpits the importance of showing love for our neighbors by getting vaccinated. We deny religious exemptions.
- Maintain all safety protocols, even though churches are exempt from some limits.
- Encourage sharing of stories among our members, to address fears or misconceptions about vaccination.
- When possible, open our church facilities as sites for vaccinations.
- Promote health literacy to help ourselves understand the facts of viruses
- Support expanded or complete shutdown of the state, when needed to save lives.

We also encourage you, as Governor, to take additional actions for the good of the state.

- Work with the State Board of Education to improve the safety of schools for our keiki
- Reduce barriers to Covid testing
- Step up special efforts with those populations where mortality rates are high (Filipinos, Native Hawaiians, Pacific Islanders; empower their leaders to share accurate health information
- Send the message repeatedly that exemption from vaccination does not exempt you from the consequences of being unvaccinated (i.e., you cannot access any setting where vaccination is required)
- Impose a complete shutdown, if Covid numbers continue to rise to dangerous levels.

Thank you for reading this letter.

Sincerely,

Ikaika Hussey

Faith Action President

We encourage your church group to select one day to come and pray for one hour throughout the campaign!

40 Days for Life is a peaceful prayer vigil.

For individuals who wish to become a sidewalk counselor, please join the next all-day class. Contact Paul Maple, ProLifeDirector@gmail.com
