Happy 4th of July! Prayer for Our Nation's Independence Day

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declare life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Perhaps no book of the Bible fascinates people more than Revelation.

Yet few people have studied it, especially from a Catholic perspective. Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come is an intriguing eleven-session study program that shows how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven. In this study, presenter Jeff Cavins pulls back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation. Discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the "end times." Explore the Church's teaching on the second coming of Christ and the Last Judgment. Understand how God, the Divine Bridegroom, and the Church, his spotless bride, enter into a heavenly, holy, and mystical marriage every time we celebrate Mass. St. John Vianney Parish will start this eleven week Bible Study beginning September 11th on Monday mornings at 9 a.m. and September 12th, Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. Participants will meet once a week. Sign up in the Parish Office by July 28th.

WITH GRATITUDE TO THE PRIESTS

While Fr. Vincent is on vacation, Fr. Octavius Moo celebrated the Masses for our parish the last two weeks and Fr. Raymund Ellorin celebrated two daily Masses this week. This weekend, Fr. Joseph Ayinpuusa will be the celebrant at all Masses, and Fr. Ed Popish and Fr. Arnold Ortiz will celebrate the week after. We welcome them to our parish and we pray for God’s continued blessings on them. Through them, we experience God’s presence in the sacraments. A big heartfelt thank you to them for their kindness and generosity of their time with us here at SJV.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A YEAR OF THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

What the Saints had to say about the Eucharist

One of the biggest differences between Catholics and most Protestants lies in our divergent understanding of the Eucharist. For the majority of Protestants, the Eucharist is just a memorial service; but Catholics believe that it is the real participation in Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross.

In the Old Testament, God foreshadowed the work of Christ in the Eucharist in many different ways. He did so through prophetic words and various mentioned signs of bread and wine.

A Few passages pointing to the fulfilment of the Eucharist:

Gen. 14:18 - This is the first time that the word “priest” is used in the Old Testament. Melchizedek is both a priest and a king and he offers bread and wine as a sacrifice to God.

Psalm 76:2 - Melchizedek is the king of Salem. Salem is the future Jerusalem where Jesus, eternal priest and king, established the Eucharistic sacrifice which He offered under the appearance of bread and wine.

Psalm 110:4 - This is the prophecy that Jesus will be the eternal priest and king in the same manner as this mysterious priest Melchizedek. This prophecy requires us to look for an eternal bread and wine as sacrifice in the future. This prophecy is fulfilled only by the Eucharistic sacrifice.

Malachi 1:11 - This is a prophecy of a pure offering that will be offered from the rising of the sun in every place. Thus, there will be only one sacrifice, but it will be offered in many and all places. This prophecy is fulfilled only by the Church’s sacrifice offered for our salvation. If this prophecy is not fulfilled by the Church, then Malachi is a false prophet.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

In today’s Gospel , we hear Jesus tell us: “Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—Amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”

A thank you letter from Iven tells of the relief he felt when he was too ill to work, and a Vincentian returned his call for rental assistance. Unable to work or be self-sufficient was a new experience for him. He tried to remain positive and do what he could and trusted in God to work out the rest. Facing eviction, the call from our St. Vincent de Paul Society brought him hope. Through Christ, our help allowed him to remain in his place, get well and return to work. Please continue to bring hope to God’s poor by your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

SCHOOL NEWS

St. John Vianney School strives to form each child as a person of integrity, compassion, wisdom and faith.

Your parish school is a faith-based community where one’s belief in God is an integral part of the everyday environment. As a faith-based community, we emphasize those values which encourage students to accept others, understand the difference between right and wrong, and to commit themselves to serve God by serving others.

Our faculty and staff are role models who share their faith, talent and time with their students. They guide students to understand their faith and responsibilities as Christians. Our program encourages all students to share and explore Christ’s love through kindness and service to the community.

Come experience the Catholic School difference and the difference it will have on your child and your family.

Classes for next school year will begin on Wednesday, July 26, 2023. For an application and information about financial aid and scholarships see our website sjvkailua.org

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 89¹¹

Robert M. Mondoy

I will sing, O Lord, I will sing of your love for me, O
E hī-me ni nō au, e ke A-ku - a, hī - me ni au i kou a-lo - ha mai, e ke A

Lord, of your love for me all the days of my life.
ku - a, i kou a - lo - ha mai i nā lā a mau lo - a ē

1. I will sing your love all my days, your faithfulness from age to age. I know your love is unending. Your fidelity outlasts the heavens.
2. How your people here rejoice! You summon us into your light. O Lord, your name is indeed our joy, and your justice is our strength.
3. O you, our glory and power, do favor us with your victory. O you, the Holy One of Israel, our shield, our Lord, our king.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

Take Up Your Cross

If you lose your life for my sake, you will find it; if you want to save your life, let it go. Take up your cross, deny yourself; Come, follow me, follow me.

1. How will profit by gaining the world, while you forfeit all of your life? What will you give in return? What will you give in return?
2. Before I return in glory I will give you the gift of my love; you will never taste death, you will never taste death.

References to the Holy Eucharist In The Old Testament

Passages written in scripture foreshadow that Jesus is the Lamb of God and that Bread and Wine would become His Body and Blood.

A year long focus to further educate our parish community and the Kailua community about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist

1. Bible scholars say that the Tree of Life in Genesis is a prefiguration of the Cross, and the fruit of the Tree of Life is a prefiguration of the Eucharist, the Body of Christ, which hung from the Cross.
2. Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; is said to foreshadow Christ's priesthood, who also offered bread and wine.
3. Isaac asks his father Abraham why there is a fire but no lamb for a burnt offering. Abraham responds: "God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering." Jesus is the "Lamb of God" offered in sacrifice for mankind. (John 1:29)
4. God commands Moses to say: "Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male...they shall take some of the blood and put it on the doorposts...They shall eat the flesh that night" (Exodus 12: 5-8). Jesus is identified with the Passover lamb, and the eating of the lamb with the eating of Jesus' body.
5. God also commands his people to eat "unleavened bread" (Exodus 12:15), According to Matthew and Mark, Jesus instituted the Eucharist on "the first day of Unleavened Bread" (Matthew 26:17; Mark 14:12).
6. God sent the Israelites the manna, or bread from heaven: Jesus is the fulfillment of the manna when he states " I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever" (John 6: 49-51).
7. Moses said, 'Behold the blood of the covenant which the Lord has made with you" (Exodus 24:8). Jesus said "This chalice which is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood" (Luke 22:20).
8. Moses said "You shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me always" (Exodus 25:30). Jesus who is greater than the temple became the true bread of the Presence. (Matthew 12:1-8).
9. Todah is Hebrew for "thanksgiving. A todah sacrifice was a type of peace offering that consists of meat, bread and wine (Lev 7:11-15; Num 15:8-10). In the Eucharistic sacrifice, the bread and wine become the body and blood of Jesus.
10. Like a lamb that is led to the slaughter... although he had done no violence... he [made] himself an offering for sin." Jesus is, again, the "Lamb of God," who is the "righteous", and "the expiation for our sins" (1 John 2:2).

Our Parish Faith Formation Committee encourages all parishioners to learn more about the Real Presence during the next 12 months.

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE

Peter's Pence Collection

Be a sign of mercy.

When Russia invaded Ukraine in February 2022, a humanitarian crisis began for Ukrainians, whose lives were shattered by the violence of war. Many left their homes in eastern cities in Ukraine for cities in the west, such as Lviv, farther from the most intense fighting. From the beginning of the war, the Holy Father pleaded for an end to the violence and expressed his love and concern for the Ukrainian people who were its victims. In solidarity with the victims of war, the papal almoner, Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, made two visits to Ukraine in March 2022. He first visited the cities of Rivne and Zhovka and other regions directly affected by the early conflict. He returned to Ukraine to celebrate Mass in the cathedral in Lviv and to deliver an ambulance donated by the Holy Father to the Center for Mother and Child Health to assist children displaced by the war.

The Holy Father's charitable outreach to victims of war, migrants and refugees, and the poor affected by illness and natural disasters is supported by contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection. When you participate in the collection, you join Catholics across the globe in supporting the pope's mission of mercy as well as the activities of the Holy See's dicasteries that assist his ministry.

Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message to take care of the poor and expresses unity with the Holy Father in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

How You Can Help

PRAY

Pray for the Holy Father, for those he reaches out to serve in compassion, and for the ongoing activities of the Holy See, all of which benefit from the Peter's Pence Collection.

An intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come shows how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven.

Presenter Jeff Cavins pulls back the veil on the rich symbolism present in Revelation. Discover what the mysterious figures and images of Revelation mean and see how Revelation is more than an apocalyptic vision of the “end times.”

“Once you start learning, he makes you hunger for more. Jeff pulls everything you need to know out of the Bible, and it all starts to make sense like it never did before.”
