The entire school ohana at St. John Vianney School wishes everyone a joyful and happy New Year. May God bless you all with much happiness and good health, and write on your heart that every day is your best day.

Classes will resume on Monday, January 6, 2025, and we are looking forward to being back in the classroom. Your parish school offers so much more than just strong academics, it focuses on educating the whole child, mind, body, and most importantly spirit.

Educating our children has always been a mission of the Catholic Church, and our school is a reminder that a Catholic education helps each student grow into the very best person they can be. Parents choose St. John Vianney School for their child because of our high academic standards, values-added education and a safe school environment.

We are now accepting applications for NEW STUDENTS for 2025-2026 school year. They are available online and may be downloaded at sjvkailua.org.

MAHALO TO ALL WHO HELPED DURING ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS!

St. John Vianney has many ministries: choir and band, environment, sacristans, altar servers, lectors, hospitality ministers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, office volunteers, behind-the-scene volunteers, office staff, deacons, and priests. A heartfelt gratitude is extended to all of you who volunteered countless hours in helping to prepare for our liturgical celebrations for Advent and Christmas. Our parish is blessed!

All are to be commended for the heart they put into making the Mass celebration meaningful and extra special for our parish community. Christ's light shone to all who gave their time, talent and treasure. Our church looks beautiful! Thank you to the dozen volunteers who serve in the Liturgical Environment Ministry led by Patty Lee, and to Ed and Ginny Klein for contributing the Norfolk pines as decorations for the crèche, and to Dcn. Clarence for picking up the Norfolk pines. We are grateful to all of you!

Sharing with others my relationship with Jesus

As we reflect on the Feast of Holy Family, we are all aware that at some point, every Christian has had a family member, a friend, co-worker, or acquaintance who is not a Christian. Sharing the gospel with others can be difficult, and it can become even more difficult when it involves someone with whom we have close emotional ties. The Bible tells us that some people will be offended at the gospel (Luke 12:51-53). However, we are commanded to share the gospel, and there is no excuse for not doing so (Matthew 28:19-20; Acts 1:8; 1 Peter 3:15).

So, how can we evangelize our family members, friends, co-workers, and acquaintances? The most important thing we can do is pray for them. Pray that God would change their hearts and open their eyes to the truth of the gospel (2 Corinthians 4:4). Pray that God would convince them of His love for them and their need for salvation through Jesus Christ (John 3:16).

We must also be willing and bold in our actual sharing of the gospel when opportunity allows it. Always be prepared to speak of your faith (1 Peter 3:15), doing so with gentleness and respect. In addition to praying and sharing our faith, we must also live godly Christian lives in front of our friends and family members so they can see the change God has made in us (1 Peter 3:1-2). Ultimately, we must leave the salvation of our loved ones up to God. It is God's power and grace that saves people, not our efforts. The best we can do is pray for them, witness to them, and live the Christian life in front of them. It is God who gives the increase (1 Corinthians 3:6).

JUBILEE PRAYER 2025

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen

COMMUNION PROCESSION SONGS

93. What Child Is This

1. What child is this, who laid to rest, On

Mary's lap is sleeping? Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?

This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing; Haste, haste to bring him laud, The Babe the son of Mary.

2. Why lies he in such mean estate, Where ox and ass are feeding? Good Christian, fear for sinners here, The silent Word is pleading. Refrain

3. So bring him incense, gold and myrrh, Come, peasant, king to own him; The King of kings salvation brings, Let loving hearts enthrone him. Refrain

Text: William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898), in Bramley & Stainer's Christmas Carols, New and Old, 1871, alt.

Tune: GREENSLEEVES, Trad. English folk song, 16th cent.

72. O Little Town of Bethlehem

1. O little town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep The silent stars go by; Yet in the dark streets shineth the everlasting Light; The hopes and fears of all the years Are met in thee tonight.

2. For Christ is born of Mary, And gathered all above, While mortals sleep, the angels keep Their watch of wond'ring love. O morning stars, together Proclaim the holy birth! And praises sing to God the King, And peace to all on earth.

3. How silently, how silently, The wondrous gift is giv'n So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heav'n. No ear may hear his coming, But in this world of sin, Where mEEK souls will receive him, still The dear Christ enters in.

4. O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descend to us we pray; Cast out our sin and enter in, Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels The great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!

By virtue of our Baptismal calling,

St. John Vianney

The Year of Mission

During this Holiday Season Encourage Someone To Return to Sunday Mass.

- Everyone knows someone who comes to Mass only at Christmas and Easter. This Holiday season be sure to encourage them to attend Sunday Mass.
- It is a tremendous gift to help a friend or family member return to Sunday Mass and experience God's grace and abundant blessings and worship God together.
- Write down a list of people you know and pray over the list, and ask the Holy Spirit to show you whom to reach out to. Pray for the graces necessary to follow through on helping them return to Sunday Mass.
- Share with this person how much you love him or her, and miss them at Mass on Sunday.
- Rather than listing all of the reasons why this person should come back to Mass on Sundays, talk about how much you get out of going to Mass. Fill in the blank; "The reason I love going to Sunday Mass is . . ." or "During Sunday Mass I really look forward to . . ."
- By attending Mass on Sunday, one acknowledges the importance of the Lord's Day, and as a Catholic fulfills God's law to "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day."
- The first and foremost reason to attend Sunday Mass, is to receive the Eucharist, which is truly the body and blood of Jesus, who said "Do this in remembrance of me."
- Going to Sunday Mass to hear God's Word, and the opportunity for prayer, rest and renewal is what we all so desperately need for the health of our souls and minds.
- Sunday Mass offers a unique opportunity to encounter God that is not available anywhere else, and presents a profound encounter with God's mercy and forgiveness.
- Encourage them to come with you and your family, or with a group of friends, to Mass on Sunday and perhaps invite them to lunch afterwards.
- It is important to recognize that this may not be a "one and done" conversation but is more likely to be a series of conversations and invitations.

Our Parish Faith Formation Committee encourages
