FAITH FIRST

June: There's something about the month of June that seems to lift the soul. Perhaps it's the scent of summer in the air. But in the Church calendar, June is more than just the gateway to summer; it's a month positively bursting with beauty, love, and heart. That's because June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, one of the Church's most tender and profound devotions. In the image of Christ's heart, pierced, burning, and crowned with thorns, the faithful are invited into a love that is both divine and deeply human. It's not a cold, distant concept of God. It's a God who feels, who aches, and who ultimately always stays.

And as if that weren't enough, June also brings the Feast of Corpus Christi, where the Church celebrates Christ present in the Eucharist, not symbolically, but really, truly, astonishingly there. It's as if the Church wants its followers to know, before everyone scatters to beaches or barbecues, that Jesus doesn't take a summer break from loving us.

For families, it's also a season of First Communions, confirmations, weddings, and ordinations, grace upon grace wrapped in celebrations.

And then there's the Immaculate Heart of Mary, celebrated the very day after the Sacred Heart. Because of course, where his heart is, hers follows close behind.

So yes, June is filled with sunshine. But more than that, it's filled with sacred reminders that we are known, loved, and never alone. And if that's not enough, there are also some pretty impressive saints whose lives are celebrated in June, including John the Baptist, Anthony of Padua, and of course, Peter and Paul. So before the chaos of summer fully begins, the Church gently encourages us to rest in its heart awhile.

DEAR PARISH

The main theme of this Sunday's readings is that we are commissioned or sent, to bring transformation through the "Good News" of God's love, mercy, forgiveness, and salvation through Jesus His Son.

Scripture lessons: The first reading gives Israel the good news that the God of Mount Sinai loves and cares for his people. God showed His continuing care for Israel by liberating the people from slavery in Egypt and by offering them a relationship in which they would be God's "special possession … a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Paul, in the second reading, reflects on how Jesus in his life, death, and resurrection made manifest God's love and care for mankind. According to Paul, the greatest proof of God's love and care for us is Jesus' willingness to die on behalf of sinful mankind and so make possible a new and better relationship with God. In the Gospel, there is a moment of transition. The disciples now become apostles or those sent to continue doing the work begun by Jesus, both in word and deed. This is indeed the core of the vocation of every Christian through his or her Baptism. Up to this point in the story, Jesus himself was the focus of the healing, teaching, and controversy. With the commissioning of his disciples, others began to assume some of the responsibility for the new movement that heralded the kingdom of God. That new movement was destined to grow later, with increasing diversity, as it extended beyond the borders of Galilee, becoming the Universal Christian Church. Every member of the Church is sent by Jesus to contribute to this mission.

Question for Group Discussion: How can I be a visible sign of God's love and mercy, especially to those who feel forgotten or excluded?

Challenge for the week: Who do I need to offer encouragement, a listening ear, or practical help.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Blessing of middle and high school, college and university graduates at all Masses this weekend.

Diocesan Seminarian Fund second collection this weekend

When the Son of God entered into his public ministry, he called to himself the Twelve Apostles, upon whom he entrusted his own power and authority to cast out demons, cure diseases, and to preach the kingdom of God and to heal (This weekend's Gospel, Matthew 10:1-15). Yet our Lord and his Apostles were not without support in their ministry. Certain women, some who were acknowledged by name, and many other people who were acknowledged only anonymously, provided for them out of their means (cf. Lk. 8:1-3). To this day, our Lord continues to call certain men to himself for the sake of priestly ministry, and the need for provision crucially remains, especially during the time of a man's formal academic formation within the seminary system.

Not including the overhead and operational expenses typically associated with managing an Office of Vocations, the education costs alone (tuition, room and board) per each seminarian total approximately $320,000 over the course of his four years of undergraduate studies in philosophy, four years of graduate studies in Theology, and one year of pastoral formation within a parish community. Because of these costs, and despite the generosity of so many of the faithful, the Office of Vocations operates, on average, annually at a deficit of over $200,000. Please prayerfully consider making a financial donation towards priestly vocations. Your gift would directly contribute to the education of our seminarians and is much needed.

SJV Readers on Wednesday, June 17

Read "The Splendid and the Vile" by Erik Larson and join other members of SJV Readers club on Wednesday, June 17 at 2:30 p.m. in the parish lounge for an hour of dialogue. SJV Readers is a monthly book club filled with good conversation, fellowship, and thoughtful, faith-based reflection. Next month's book will be chosen at the meeting.

Ko'olau Catholic Men's Fellowship Father's Day Celebration on Saturday, June 20

Bring your family for food, fun and fellowship on Saturday from 11 a.m.—3 p.m. in the parish hall. $15.00 for adults and high school students, younger children are free.

Diocesan Formation Institute, Sunday—Friday, June 21—26

Join Catholics from across Hawai'i for a week of learning, prayer, fellowship, and formation as we grow together as missionary disciples in service to the Church and the world. All are invited to the inaugural Diocesan Formation Institute, June 21–26, at Damien Memorial School. This week-long opportunity is open to catechists, ministry leaders, volunteers, educators, and anyone seeking to deepen their Catholic faith through engaging courses in Scripture, sacraments, morality, evangelization, liturgy, and more. For more information or to register, visit FormationInstitute.eventbrite.com.

Improving Your Serve: A Workshop on Parish Hospitality, Saturday, July 11, 2026, 9 a.m.—12 p.m.

How do we create a welcoming environment at Mass where everyone feels invited, valued, and eager to become part of our parish community? Many visitors feel nervous when attending a new church for the first time, and unfortunately, some never return if they do not experience a warm welcome. This workshop will help raise the bar of hospitality in our parish so that more people can encounter the aloha of God through his people. Discover practical tips, proven techniques, and simple ways to create a culture of welcome that helps others feel at home and come to know the love of Jesus. While focused on the Mass experience, these principles can be applied to all parish ministries and programs. This workshop is offered by the Diocesan Office of Evangelization and Catechesis and will be held at Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, Wahiawa. Please save the date.

Saint John Vianney Parish School News

The last day of this school year was Friday, June 5th. Our heartfelt thanks to our incredible staff, students and parents for a fantastic school year. May you all have a safe and fun-filled summer and we wish the students leaving us a bright future. Sadly, we are saying aloha to two of our faculty members: Macy Moore, our fifth-grade teacher, and Annalise Busekrus, our third-grade teacher, are leaving us for an exciting new chapter in their lives.

Your parish school has a tradition of promoting excellence in academics, encouraging spiritual growth, and assisting in the formation of students in mind, heart and spirit. We also instill in them values like teamwork, compassion and personal responsibility. We are looking forward to starting fall classes on Wednesday, July 22nd. Students of all backgrounds and faiths are welcome to experience our exceptional education. Information about our curriculum, tuition assistance programs and an application to enroll your child or grandchild are available at www.sjvkailua.org.

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know and never be the same? Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known, Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer pray'r in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name? Will you set the pris'ners free and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen, And admit to what I mean in you and you in me?
4. Will you love the 'you' your hide if I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same? Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?
5. Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you and never be the same. In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

THE YEAR OF APOLOGETICS

How to Explain and Defend our Catholic faith

The Importance Of Sacred Tradition

We believe that the teachings of Jesus and the Apostles were preserved not only in scripture but also by word of mouth that was handed down to us.
(See back side)

"In preserving tradition, we honor
The sacredness of our faith"
(St. Francis of Assisi)

APOLOGETICS
DEFENDING OUR CATHOLIC FAITH
Sacred Tradition

- Sacred Tradition includes everything the Church has received from Christ and the first disciples and has passed on to future generations.
- It is important to remember that the first generation of Christians had no Bible, and only had Tradition on which to base their faith.
- Sacred Tradition is the companion to Sacred Scripture and the other half of God's revelation to man.
- St. Paul says in Scripture "Therefore, brothers, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught, either by an oral statement or by a letter of ours." (2 Thessalonians 2:15)
- Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit Sacred Tradition cannot contradict anything in the Bible.
- When Scripture stands on its own, differences in interpretations of scripture take place, as seen today in many other churches.
- Scripture, Sacred Tradition, along with the Pope and his Bishops, together make sure that the Word of God is faithfully handed on to each succeeding generation.
- An example of Sacred Tradition is worshiping on Sunday, rather than the Jewish custom of worshiping on Saturday.
- While the Sacraments are rooted in Scripture, many details about how they should be celebrated and understood have been transmitted through Tradition.
- The Apostles' Creed is Sacred Tradition and an early summary of important Christian beliefs.
- There are references to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit throughout the bible but never is the doctrine of the Trinity clearly stated.
- Sacred Tradition is something far different than church traditions: such as the language of the Mass, kneeling during Mass, standing for communion, liturgical colors, priestly celibacy and whether or not to eat meat on Friday.
