ANNOUNCEMENTS

This Weekend's Second Collection—Servant of God, Joseph Dutton

Help advance the cause of canonization of Servant of God Joseph Dutton. With your support, a humble Civil War lieutenant with a fervent desire to serve God may become Hawaii's third saint! Join your hearts with others in parishes of the Diocese of Honolulu for a special collection for the cause of Servant of God Joseph Dutton, Layman on Saturday and Sunday, April 27-28, 2024. Your support will allow this important work to continue in the Vatican. Your contribution will make a difference. Mahalo!

First Saturday Anointing of the Sick and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Saturday, May 4 at the 8 a.m. Mass, the healing Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick will be offered to anyone suffering from serious illness, facing serious surgery, or whose health is impaired by advanced age. Following Mass, you are invited to our monthly adoration service and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

May Crowning in the Grotto on Sunday, May 5 after the 11 a.m. Mass

May is traditionally dedicated in a special way to honoring and seeking the intercession of Mary, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. Mary embraces God's will and freely chooses to cooperate with God's grace, thereby fulfilling a crucial role in God's plan of salvation. Throughout the centuries, the Church has turned to the Blessed Virgin Mary in order to come closer to Christ. The Church honors her as the Mother of God, looks to her as a model of perfect discipleship, and asks for her prayers to God on our behalf.

Ordination to the Priesthood on May 24 at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa

With praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God, the Diocese of Honolulu joyfully announces the Ordination to the Priesthood of Rev. Mr. Kurt Kealii Meyer, Rev. Mr. Francis Hai Thanh Pham, and Rev. Mr. Anthony Tran through the imposition of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit by His Excellency the Most Reverend Clarence "Larry" Silva. May 24, 2024 at 6 p.m. the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus.

The newly ordained priests will celebrate Thanksgiving Masses at St. John Vianney Parish on the weekend of June 8 and 9, 2024 with hospitality refreshments on the Fellowship Lanai after every Mass in honor of the newest members of the Diocese of Honolulu's Presbyterate. (Dcn. Kurt Meyer and Dcn. Francis Hai Pham served as seminarians in our parish during the summers of 2019 and 2020.)

Infant Baptism Classes are Offered to Parents and Godparents in May Lead your child to grow in holiness and prepare yourselves for the life-long responsibility of passing on the faith to your beloved child beginning with their baptism. Please call the parish office to sign up for classes in May for parents and godparents of a child six years old and under.

SCHOOL NEWS

After Mass this Sunday, please drop by your parish school's booth at the I Love Kailua Town Party where volunteers will be distributing logo items and brochures. They are looking forward to seeing you there!

All are invited to attend and see the pageantry presented in our May Day Celebration on Friday, May 3rd beginning at 9 a.m. in the parish hall. The May Day Court consists of a prince and princess from each grade level, starting with our early learning center through 7th grade, and a king and queen from the eighth grade. Also included are Ladies in Waiting, Kahili Bearers, Conch Blowers, a Kapu Stick Bearer and Masters of Ceremony. Come enjoy songs and hula honoring island culture and the culture of Native Hawaiians. We are seeking donations of cut plants and greenery to decorate the hall. Please drop off all donations outside the hall or at the school office by the end of the school day on Thursday, May 2nd.

Next weekend, May 4—5, an election will be held to fill three vacant school board positions. Ballots will be placed at the end of each pew before each Mass. Anyone who is 16 years or older is eligible to vote. The School extends its appreciation to the five members of our faith and school community who applied to serve on our school board.

THE LIVING ROSARY

May is the month of Mary. Various Popes over the centuries have sought to foster devotion to Our Blessed Lady. One of them, St. Pope Paul VI, in his Encyclical on the Month of May writes, the month of May is the “month which the piety of the faithful has long dedicated to Mary, the Mother of God. Our heart rejoices at the thought of the moving tribute of faith and love which will soon be paid to the Queen of Heaven in every corner of the earth. For this is the month during which Christians, in their churches and their homes, offer the Virgin Mother more fervent and loving acts of homage and veneration; and it is the month in which a greater abundance of God's merciful gifts comes down to us from our Mother's throne. ”

St. Ann Parish invites us to join our voices with Catholic Christians around the world by participating in and praying The Living Rosary on Thursday, May 16, 2024 at 7 p.m. at St. Ann Church in Kaneohe.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Divine Mercy of Jesus

To recap, in the Roman Catholic Church, Easter has always been a celebration of the great love that God has for His Creation. A love that was shown when the Divine Son became incarnate and dwelt among us, sharing in our lot, showing us the way to the Father, and making the perfect offering in atonement for our sins.

On the Second Sunday after Easter, the Church celebrates Divine Mercy, a feast based upon the private revelations of Jesus to St. Faustina. In extending this Feast to the entire Church, St. Pope John Paul II re-emphasized the resurrection context of Easter, citing St. Faustina's diary: “Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy. This is the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ, a gift which it offers to all humanity.”

The first epistle of St. John declares to the entire world that “God is love;” and in his encyclical letter Rich in Mercy, Blessed John Paul II wrote “Mercy is love's second name.” If we understand mercy in the Biblical sense, then without any fear of error contrary to the faith, it can be said, as John Paul II said, that “mercy is the greatest attribute of God.”

The message of Divine Mercy is simple. It is, that despite our misery and brokenness, whatever form it takes; sin, guilt, suffering, or death, God reaches out to us. He is ever ready to pour out his merciful and compassionate love for us. And since God loves us so much, He wants us to approach Him in constant prayer, repenting of our sins while asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. He wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through, extending our love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us. At the end of the day, where there was only despair, loneliness, and heartache before, comes joy, fruitfulness, and abiding love.

Our Hope and Our Prayer for the Windward Vicariate

That a man will answer God's call to become a deacon.

The Permanent Deacon Formation Program is a five-year intensive program that prepares men spiritually, intellectually, and pastorally for ordination. Men (and if married, their wives) will be formed and sent to teach, to guard and bear witness to, and to serve the Church through their witness to Jesus and their diaconal ministries of word, service and charity.

Inquiry weekend retreats offer a spiritually enriching encounter, filled with valuable information, providing men and their wives a profound experience to deeply explore the diaconate vocation. Whether you've felt a diaconal calling or have a faint inkling of one, you should attend. To be considered for the next cohort (#12), applicants must attend one of these mandatory weekends, with their spouses if married. May 3-5 or June 14-16, 2024. We invite you to reserve a space online at catholicahawaii.org/formation. 1. Power and riches, wisdom and strength; honor and glory, and blessing to the Lamb: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
2. The blood of the Lamb has purchased a people and made us a kingdom and priests for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
3. The Lamb on his throne will shepherd his people, and lead them to springs of life-giving water. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
4. Blessing and honor, glory and might be to our God and to the Lamb for ever, Amen. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

GLORY TO GOD

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. | We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, | Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, | Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; | you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; | you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. | For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, | with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

You are my praise, Lord, in the great as-sembly.
Nou ko'u mai-la - ni i kou a-nai-na nu - i

1. I make good my promise before our people; all seekers of God shall break out in praise. The lowly and poor shall eat all their fill; "May all hearts live for ever in joy."
2. All peoples, all families shall turn to you now; all seekers of God shall bow down in praise. All those who have lived and all those who've died still proclaim God for ever all time.
3. So we and our children will live for you now; all seekers of God shall serve all their days; Proclaiming to those to be born; the news that God saves all for ever through love.
- LOH 4. Glory, honor and worship to you, O Father, and to the Son and the Spirit, as it was since the start, is now, and will be for ever. Amen, amen.

The Year of Parish Revival

Accept the Divine Mercy of Jesus

- God loves us and wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him, receive His mercy, and will come to share His joy. .
- How Can We Best Respond to God's Divine Mercy?
- It's All About Trust. When fears of the unknown or known origin, anxieties and confusion, and resentments all converge at once, we can easily ask ourselves this question. "What is it all about?"
- It is then that we scream, "Lord, what is it all about? Help! Mercy!"
- It is precisely, then, that we need to try to listen to the silent voice of God deep within our hearts, pleading with us, crying out like a voice in the desert, "Trust Me!" God speaks very loudly, but His language is usually silence.
- Once our hearts are stilled, His most common words to us are: "Do not be afraid. I am with you. Trust Me." Consider this verse from the Psalms: "Trust God at all times, my people! Pour out your hearts to God our refuge!" (Ps 62:9).
- Trust means to believe in Jesus, to love Him, and to hope in Him. It means to be totally absorbed in Jesus as our Lord and Savior, to rely completely on Him. When we really trust in Jesus we can say with the apostle St. Paul: "It is no longer I that live but Christ who lives in me" (Gal 2:20).
- But how do I trust? The Blessed Virgin Mary is our great example here as a model disciple of the Lord. We see her at the Annunciation completely abandoning herself to God's will when she was asked to be the Mother of God.
- We start by living the ABC's of Mercy
Ask for His Mercy; Be Merciful in all we do; Completely Trust in Jesus
- "The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is - trust. The more a soul trusts the more it will receive."
- "Souls that trust boundlessly are a great comfort to me, because I pour all the treasures of My graces into them. I rejoice that they ask for much, because it is My desire to give much, very much. I am sad when souls ask for little, when they narrow their hearts."

(quotes taken from: Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, Divine Mercy in My Soul)
