ANNOUNCEMENTS

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord.

Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists - those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, both inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, on this day, it would be wrong to only look to those bearing the title of a catechist for an echoing of good news. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. Even more, all of us are also important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. We are ALL called to echo and share the Gospel message.

Some say catechesis begins in the home; however, it truly begins in the HEART. "Come to me all who labor and are burdened" is the theme for the 2023 Catechetical Sunday observed today. All parishes in the United States will recognize the Ministry of the Word and those who have dedicated themselves to passing on the faith.

SCHOOL NEWS

St. John Vianney School is pleased to announce the formation of our 2023-2024 Student Government. Our Student Government consists of a President, a Vice President, a Chief Financial Officer, a Chief Communications Officer, a Publicist and a representative from the fifth through eighth grade classes. The student government's mission is to represent the interests of our student body through the implementation of innovative programs, services and initiatives that can enrich student lives. They will be the primary source of advocacy for students and will be a voice for student opinions and concerns. Many thanks to their teacher advisors.

We are very excited to also announce that our music ensembles are ready to begin meeting during the week. Our music ensembles consist of a choir, a beginning band, a concert band and an orchestra. Students who are interested in joining one of the groups may still do so by contacting our music teachers.

For more information, please contact the school at 808-261-4651.

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY, SEP. 24

Priesthood Sunday seeks to reaffirm the priesthood of Jesus Christ and its central place in the life of the Church. This day also specifically honors priests, without whom the Holy Sacraments could not be conferred for a single day out of the 365 days of the year during which they tirelessly serve their parishes. With priests, we can receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Next weekend, you may show your appreciation for our parish priest, Fr. Vincent, with a simple gesture or note of thanksgiving to him.

MEN'S SERVICE PROJECT

The Catholic Men's Fellowship group will restripe the church's parking lot on Saturday, September 23 beginning at 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. Preparation work will begin the evening of the 22nd. Those who attend daily morning Mass and reconciliation are asked to park on the school side of campus. If you would like to participate in this service day, please contact Mike Wong at 808-228-3105. Thank you to all the men for dedicating their day to the parish!

PRAY FOR THE DEAD

A Great Act of Mercy

Names of our loved ones who have passed away may be added to our Sunday Mass prayer intentions. We pray that their time of purification might be quick and complete and that, through God's grace, they might enjoy the glories of heaven. Please contact the parish office to have your loved one's name added to a specific Mass. Customarily offerings are appreciated but not required.

FINANCIAL ANNUAL REPORT FY23

The Parish and School Annual Report for fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 is now available in the online bulletin and on the parish website. It was also emailed to all parishioners on September 15.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A YEAR OF THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Catechism on the Eucharist

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church No.1324, it states: "The Eucharist is 'The Source and Summit of the Christian life.' The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch."

The Eucharist is the memorial of Christ's Passover; the making present and the sacramental offering of his unique sacrifice in the liturgy of the Church, which is his Body. In all the Eucharistic Prayers, we find after the words of institution a prayer called the anamnesis or memorial.

In the sense of Sacred Scripture, the memorial is not merely the recollection of past events, but the proclamation of the mighty works wrought by God for men. In the liturgical celebration of these events, they become in a certain way present and real. This is how Israel understands its liberation from Egypt: every time Passover is celebrated, the Exodus events are made present to the memory of believers so that they may conform their lives to them.

In the New Testament, the memorial takes on new meaning. When the Church celebrates the Eucharist, she commemorates Christ's Passover, and it is made present. The sacrifice Christ offered once for all on the cross remains ever present. "As often as the sacrifice of the Cross, by which 'Christ our Pasch has been sacrificed' is celebrated on the altar, the work of our redemption is carried out."

MARIANIST LECTURE SERIES

PRESENTS: GOD'S MECHANICS

How Scientists and Engineers Make Sense of Religion

Sunday, October 8, 2023 | 4 PM

Mystical Rose Oratory, Chaminade University
Registration Encouraged, Not Required

Brother Guy Consolmagno, SJ is the Director of the Vatican Observatory and will speak about the connection between science and religion. He is the author of several popular books including Turn Left at Orion (with Dan Davis), and Would You Baptize an Extraterrestrial? (with Paul Mueller).

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

The challenge in today's Gospel, is to forget how others have behaved toward us and to look to God's way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God. Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. We want to help! Call 808-456-7837.

GLORY TO GOD

after Howard Hughes, SM ICEL Psalter, 1992, arr. R.M. RM 27.4

Glory to God in the highest, | and on earth peace to people of good will. || We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, ||| we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, | O God, almighty Father. || Lord Jesus Christ, ||| Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; || you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; ||| you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, | you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, || with the Holy Spirit, ||| in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Amabile

Psalm 103<sup>1</sup>

Robert M. Mondoy

1. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy. He does not treat us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our faults.
2. Like a parent, compassionate to children, full of goodness to those who fear him. He knows of what we are made. He remembers that we are but dust.
3. As for us our days are but grass, like the blossoms of the field, we flower; the wind blows over us, and ends our days of bloom, and our place never sees us again.
4. But the love of the Lord is everlasting, full of goodness to those who fear him. His justice reaches out to every generation when they keep his covenant and his will in heart.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS Amazing Grace

Hymnal 223

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound, That saved and set me free! I once was lost, but now am found, Was blind but now I see.
2. "Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved; How precious did that grace appear, The hour I first believed.
3. Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
4. The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures; He will my shield and portion be, As long as life endures.
5. When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun, We've no less days to sing God's praise, Than when we've first begun.

Text: Vrs. 1-4 John Newton (1725-1807); Vrs 5 anon. fr. A Collection of Sacred Ballads, 1790.
Tune: NEW BRITAIN, Columbian Harmony, 1829.

COMMUNION PROCESSION Now We Remain

Hymnal 172

We hold the death of the Lord deep in our hearts. Living, now we remain with Jesus, the Christ.

1. Once we were people afraid, lost in the night. Then by your cross we were saved; dead became living, life from your giving.
2. Something which we have known, something we've touched, what we have seen with our eyes: this we have heard; life giving Word.
3. He chose to give of himself, became our bread. Broken that we might live. Love beyond love, pain for our pain.
4. We are the presence of God; this is our call. Now to become bread and wine: food for the hungry, life for the weary, for to live with the Lord, we must die with the Lord.

©1983, G.I.A. Publications, Inc.. Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE, License #A-735407 All rights reserved. Used with permission.

1. We who see and love our Lord, let our songs and praise afford, Let the mighty song of all creation rise above, Sing and play before our King, O let our joyful hula bring to celebrate all the wonder of God's love.
2. Let the peoples praise you, Lord, let their praise rise in accord, May your blessing find a home, a place within each heart. We to you devoted live, for your sweet company you give, O happy we for the grace that you impart.
3. Jesus came to live on earth, God took on a human birth, Such the power and the holy mys-t'ry of God's grace. Christ has died, and Christ is risen, Christ will come again in glory; We rejoice in that mys-t'ry of God's grace.
4. Though we come from far and near, all diverse we've gathered here, one in bread and one in cup, the fruit of the true vine, God of mercy, God of grace has shown us Jesus as his face, O shine upon us, shine upon us, Savior, shine.
5. Let the people shout "Amen!", may "Alleluias" never end. May the Holy Spirit of this love move us today. Shout "All glory!" up above to this great God of wond'rous love, all our being, all our heartfelt tribute pay.

Celebrate!

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Sunday, September 24

Priesthood Sunday is a special day in the United States to honor the men who have chosen the priesthood as their vocation. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the central role of the priesthood in the Church's life. With priests, we can receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Next weekend, you may show your appreciation for our parish priest, Fr. Vincent, with a simple gesture or note of thanksgiving to him.

A Eucharistic Revival

To renew us by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

The Eucharist Explained
In the Catechism of the Catholic Church

“All who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him” (CCC 1329).

A year long focus to further educate our parish community and the Kailua community about the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist

1. (1327) In brief, the Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith: "Our way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking." In the most blessed sacrament of the Eucharist "the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained."
2. (1324) The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it.
3. (2181) The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.
4. (1415) Anyone who desires to receive Christ in Eucharistic communion must be in the state of grace. Anyone aware of having sinned mortally must not receive communion without having received absolution in the sacrament of penance.
5. (1396) The unity of the Mystical Body: the Eucharist makes the Church. Those who receive the Eucharist are united more closely to Christ. Through it Christ unites them to all the faithful in one body - the Church.
6. (1387) To prepare for worthy reception of this sacrament, the faithful should fast for at least one hour. This means that we are not permitted to eat food or drink, except for medicine and water. Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest.
7. (2182) Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to his Church. The faithful give witness by this to their communion in faith and charity. Together they testify to God's holiness and their hope of salvation. They strengthen one another under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
8. (1524) In addition to the Anointing of the Sick, the Church offers those who are about to leave this life the Eucharist as viaticum. Communion in the body and blood of Christ, received at this moment of "passing over" to the Father, has a particular significance and importance. It is the seed of eternal life and the power of resurrection, according to the words of the Lord: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day." The sacrament of Christ once dead and now risen, the Eucharist is here the sacrament of passing over from death to life, from this world to the Father.

Our Parish Faith Formation Committee encourages all parishioners to learn more about the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist
