ANNOUNCEMENTS

Be Someone's Christmas Angel

Our annual Angel Giving Tree is an opportunity for us to make a child's Christmas wish come true. Over 100 children who are assisted through Catholic Charities Hawaii's social services units will be happy to receive our angel's gift. Please come to the parish office after all Masses to choose a gift tag from the Christmas tree. The handmade snowflake ornament is yours to keep, thanks to the Girls Scouts troops of the windward area.

Second Collection for Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, more than 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and support those working on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Happy Thanksgiving to All

As the liturgical year comes to a close next weekend, give thanks to God for all the blessings of the past year, especially for friends and family members, at the Thanksgiving Day Mass on Thursday, November 23 at 8 a.m.

Annual Convocation of Priests will be held November 27—December 1, 2023

The annual convocation of priests includes five days of workshops, prayer, and comradery for all active priests in the Diocese of Honolulu. Let us pray for Bishop Silva and the one hundred priests who serve in Hawaii during the week of their convocation. SJV's daily Mass schedule will continue as normal with Fr. Arnold Ortiz and Dcn. Jerry Tokars.

Make an Advent Wreath and Count Down the Weeks to Christmas

Our family Faith Formation event will begin with dinner at 6 p.m. All are invited to attend this multi-generational, interactive event which will help us learn more about our Catholic faith and celebrate the beginning of Advent. Sign-up online or call the office to reserve your seat. We are also in need of donations of greenery for our wreaths. If you need help in gathering the greenery or to make a donation, please let us know in the parish office.

Mahalo Veteran's Day Celebration

Last Saturday night, 30 military veterans, active duty, and JROTC members celebrated Veterans Day together in the parish center with food, honoring, story telling, laughter, mutual support and prayer. Highlights included recollections of a Korean War soldier, moving stories by Viet Nam veterans, and a beautiful sharing by Gina Salehi regarding the challenges and blessings of being a military spouse and family. Many thanks to the parish who generously subsidized this much appreciated and well deserved celebration.

SCHOOL NEWS

St. John Vianney School’s emphasis is on educating the whole child. Our focus is on providing students with a strong academic foundation while providing them with values and ethics that promote long-term development, well-being, and the success of each child. Our staff teaches children about the importance of their actions, behavior and treatment of one another as essential qualities in the learning process. Our whole child instruction also aims to ensure each child is healthy, safe, engaged, supported, and challenged. Students need not be Catholic to attend your parish school, as all faiths are treated with respect.

We will conduct our annual TURKEY TROT this Wednesday, November 22, 2023 at approximately 9:15 a.m. The preschool and kindergarten students will complete a course here on campus. First through eighth grade students will run/walk around Enchanted Lake on Keolu Dr. (approximately 3 miles). We still need a few more volunteers to assist with monitoring students/roads/intersections along our route. Please contact the office at 808-261-4651.

The members of the Sodality of the Blessed Lady want to extend their sincere gratitude for the support given to them for their annual bazaar held over Veteran’s Day weekend. The donations and sales surpassed last year’s total and raised over $7000.

FATHER BLESSES THE CHILDREN

During the dismissal of Children’s Liturgy of the Word at the 9 a.m. Mass, the children are given a blessing by the priest or the deacon before they are sent to the lanai to hear the Word of God. Last Sunday, Fr. Arnold called them to the front of the sanctuary for everyone to bless them. It was a beautiful sight to see and many were touched by this gesture.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A YEAR OF THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Personal Encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist

Last Sunday we looked at why it is important for both children and adults to keep learning about the Eucharist in order to develop a personal encounter and relationship with the Lord. Today, let’s start with the obvious. Do you attend Mass every Sunday, or just when you’re in the mood, or on special occasions? Faithful Catholics have a serious obligation, before God and the Church, to attend Mass every Sunday and Holy Days, and parents have a particular duty to ensure that their children attend as well. Parents – if you’re not attending Mass every Sunday, what are you teaching your children about the importance of the Eucharist?

And what about our preparation for Mass and our appearance at Mass. Do you wear decent and modest clothes that speak of the dignity of the occasion? This becomes especially problematic during the hot summer months when folks shed their outer garments and church attire is indistinguishable from beach attire.

Do you arrive on time and spend a few moments in prayer and reflection before Mass? Do you try to free yourself of secular distractions when you enter the house of God? Do you really need to drag along that bottle of water? Is the cell phone turned off? Do you absolutely have to text your best friend to confirm your plans for the rest of the day?

How about the real addiction of our age – chewing gum! Do you realize chewing gum during Holy Mass, and even while approaching for Holy Communion, breaks at least the spirit of the required Eucharistic fast? Do you recognize that such a practice betrays the sacred encounter about to take place? And the chewing gum habit isn’t reserved just to kids by the way, even adults – men and women do it with no awareness at all of how they look or the example they’re giving to others.

BETHLEHEM WOOD SELLERS

Special gifts of assorted variety that were handmade and carved from Olive wood from Bethlehem will be available next weekend after all Masses. Gifts include handcrafted rosaries, crucifixes, nativity scenes of the Holy family, icons of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and our Lord, Jesus Christ. These make perfect gifts for Christmas or many more occasions such as baptism, confirmation, wedding, new house, graduation, and much more. Keep part of the Holy land in your home for blessings and protection.

CONFIRMATION AND FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

AJ “Damien” Ortaleza will be sealed by the gift of the Holy Spirit and shares at the Lord’s table to receive the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ for the first time this weekend in the initiation sacraments of Confirmation and first Holy Communion. He is sponsored by his future father-in-law, Dominic Ho, and will be able to fully partake in the Matrimony Mass with his bride Christina Ho at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus in December.

Thank you for placing the leaflets in the recycling box after Mass.

KU'U WĀ LI'ILI

1. O wide, em-brac-ing, won-drous love,
2. We read you in the flowers, the trees,
3. We read you best in him who came
4. The love of God will ev-er stay

E-ter-nal and yet ev-er new,
The fresh-ness of the fra-grant breeze,
And bore for us the cross of shame,
Through all the dan-gers of our way;

Un-com-pre-hend-ed and un-bought,
The songs of birds up-on the wing,
Sent by the Fa-ther from on high,
E-ter-nal love in you we rest,

Be-yond all know-ledge and all thought.
The joy of sum-mer and of spring.
Our life to live, our death to die.
For-ev-er safe, for-ev-er blest.

Glory to God in the highest, | and on earth peace to people of good will. || We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, ||| we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, | O God, almighty Father. || Lord Jesus Christ, ||| Only Begotten Son, Lord God,

Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; || you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; ||| you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, | you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, || with the Holy Spirit, ||| in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1. Blessed are the ones who fear the Lord and walk in his ways. By the labor of your hands shall you eat, for the Lord will bless you with prosperity and bless you with his goodness, and bless you with his goodness.
2. There a wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the heart of her own home; there the children shall be like olive shoots around the table of your own home; God give you all his kindness. God give you all his kindness.
3. May the Lord bless you always from his seat set in Zion, may you look upon your children's children in the happy city of Jerusalem; God give you joy all your days, God give you joys all your days.

COMMUNION PROCESSION Only This I Want

Hymnal 177

Only this I want: but to know the Lord, and to bear his cross, so to wear the crown he wore.

1. All but this is loss, worthless refuse to me,
for to gain the Lord is to gain all I need.
2. I will run the race; I will fight the good fight,
so to win the prize of the kingdom of my Lord.
3. Let your heart be glad, always glad in the Lord,
so to shine like stars in the darkness of the night.

Hymnal 144

Lead me on Lord, my Savior, Lead me on home, my Lord. Lead me on Lord, my Savior.
Get me to the Promised Land. Get me to the Promised Land.

1. The Lord will save His people, brothers. Get me to the Promised Land. So lift your heads and sing His praise now, Get me to the Promised Land.
2. The Lord walks on in freedom, sisters. Get me to the Promised Land. So gather 'round and follow in His footsteps. Get me to the Promised Land.
3. The Lord has called a meetin' for glory. Get me to the Promised Land. And there's no one here who's been forgotten. Get me to the Promised Land.
4. There'll be angels there just clappin' their hands. Get me to the Promised Land. Then all God's children begin to dance. Get me to the Promised Land.
