ANNOUNCEMENTS

Next Week's Second Collection—2024 Diocesan Priests Retirement Fund

They were there for us. Be there for them now. Our retired priests dedicated themselves over many years to the service of God's people, and we are grateful for the service they have rendered to our community. Your donations supplement the diocesan pension fund, covering the costs of sustenance, housing, medical and dental insurance, and other needs as our retired priests move into their elder years. Please give generously on April 20th and 21st, or you may donate online today at www.osvhub.com/sjvhawaii/giving/funds.

Windward Vicariate's 40 Hours Adoration, April 21-23

Oahu's Windward Vicariate 40 Hours Adoration is being hosted by Saint George Parish in Waimanalo on the occasion of Saint George's Feast Day. Offered over three days from Sunday, April 21 through Tuesday, April 23, you will have the opportunity to offer public and personal devotions for Eucharistic adoration, pray before the Blessed Sacrament, and reflect on scripture and God's will and desire for your life. The 40 Hours also includes Mass, personal testimony, inspiring talks from the laity and clergy. This 40 Hour Adoration devotion to encounter the Real Presence of Jesus Christ present in the most Holy Eucharist is an initiative of the National Eucharistic Revival's Year of Parish Renewal.

Ko`olau Catholic Men's Fellowship Meets on Thursday, April 25

All men are invited to pray the rosary at 6 p.m. and dinner to follow at St. George in Waimanalo with guest speaker Jeremy Rivera, a former evangelical pastor, who has come home to the Catholic Church to bring the good news of the Risen Christ.

Free Subscription to FORMED.org for All Parishioners

Our parish now has a subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and Knights of Columbus, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all this material is free to you. Go to Formed.org/signup, enter our zip code and parish name, then your name and email.

Infant Baptism Classes are Offered to Parents and Godparents in May Lead your child to grow in holiness and prepare yourselves for the life-long responsibility of passing on the faith to your beloved child beginning with their baptism. Call the parish office to sign up for classes in May for parents and godparents of children under age six.

PASCHAL CANDLE MAKING

After the youth led Mass last Saturday, fifteen families of all ages gathered in the parish hall for Paschal Candle Making and a lasagna and salad dinner. All had a wonderful time while learning about the meaning of the Paschal Candle, a large, decorated candle that symbolizes the light of the risen Christ. It is lit during Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday and remains lit in all celebrations until Pentecost Sunday. The candle represents Christ's victory over death and darkness and the hope he brings to the faithful. The pure beeswax of which the candle is made represents the sinless Christ who was formed in the womb of His Mother. The wick signifies his humanity, the flame his divine nature, both soul and body. The Greek letters alpha and omega, represent that Jesus is the beginning and the end, indicating his eternity and constant presence in our lives. The current year inscribed on the Paschal Candle reminds us of the continuity of faith and the presence of Christ throughout all time. The cross represents Jesus' redemptive sacrifice. Inserted in the shape of a cross, the five grains (cloves were used) symbolize the five wounds of Jesus and his sacrificial love for us. The Paschal Candle (also referred to as the Easter Candle) in the church is sufficiently large in size that it may convey the truth that Christ is the light of the world. Each family went home with a mini Paschal Candle for their home.

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Divine Mercy of Jesus

What is Divine Mercy? It is that which lies at the very center of our faith. Divine Mercy gets to the heart of Sacred Scripture. In fact, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "The Gospel is the revelation in Jesus Christ of God's mercy to sinners" (1849). Right there: That summarizes it. Divine Mercy is the Gospel. It's the good news. Mercy is "love's second name," as John Paul II said. It's a particular kind of love, a particular mode of love when it encounters suffering, poverty, brokenness, and sin. Divine Mercy is when God's love meets us and helps us in the midst of our suffering and sin. In fact, because this side of eternity we're all sinners, and because suffering is our lot in life, God's love for us here, always takes the form of mercy. It's always the Lord stepping out in compassion to help us poor, weak, and broken sinners. From our perspective, then, every good we receive is an expression of Divine Mercy.

While the message of Divine Mercy is most associated with a Polish mystic nun who died in 1938, about a year before the start of World War II, Jesus didn't reveal some new Gospel when he appeared to St. Faustina. He already revealed everything He needed to say 2,000 years ago to the Apostles and through Sacred Scripture. So, why did He do it this way? Why did He appear to St. Faustina? Actually, why does He appear to any mystic for that matter? God sometimes appears to mystics because He has a prophetic message for a particular time in history, and He uses particular men and women to share His message. Sometimes it's to remind us of something that's been forgotten. Sometimes it's a warning. At other times, it's a message of comfort. Or it may simply be a call to conversion. Whatever it is, it doesn't change the Bible. Rather, it brings us back to it at a certain time in history. So, he wants to remind us of the heart of Sacred Scripture, namely, His mercy for us sinners. He invites us now to receive his mercy.

SCHOOL NEWS

An education at St. John Vianney School engages children at an important formative time in their lives. They are learning information, but it is much more than that. They are learning about themselves, their place and purpose in the world, and their obligations to others.

Our teachers, parents and their classmates all play an important role and help each student achieve their goals.

Achievement isn't an individual goal, but a shared responsibility of all the members of the school community. Students attend classes in the company of children from many families who also take an active role in their children's education and personal development. By choosing a Catholic education you will give your child more than an educational advantage; it will also help them understand their purpose in life and their obligations to others, reinforcing the values you live at home. or more information on our mission and curriculum see our website sjvkailua.org or call the school office at 808-261-4651.

GLORY TO GOD

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. | We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, | Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, | Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, | you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; | you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; | you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. | For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, | with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Andante

Psalm 4¹

Robert M. Mondoy

Lift up, lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.
E Iā- ue, e hu-li mai i ko-u a - lo mā - la-ma - la - ma
(E ka Ha -ku.)

1. When I call on your name, O God of goodness, confident that you heed the prayer of my soul. My heart sings of your mercy and your justice, you who grant your love to all who call on you.
2. Those he loves, he grants favors and the choicest blessings upon us, we who live by his grace. When in trouble I know my loving God will save me from all harm and lead me into life.
3. There are those who will wonder whether true joy can be found, but I have been blessed with God's joy. You, O Lord, shall lift up the light of your face shining on our lives with never ending love.
4. When I lay down to slumber, even then I know I'll sleep at once, so secure is my lot. You alone make my dwelling place secure and safe at all times; you, my comfort and my joy.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS Here In This Place

Hymnal 147

Are not our hearts burning within us? Are not our lives shared as one Bread?
Here in our hands, here in this place, Jesus, our hope, life from the dead.

1. In breaking of the bread, may we know the Lord. We were lost, and now are found, home again with God.
2. You are food for all our hunger, you are all we need. You are our promise and our hope, life for the world.
3. As grain, once scattered on the hill, was gathered all as one, May we be one in this bread: Behold the Lamb of God!
4. As this bread is broken, as this cup is shared, we give our lives, Broken and out poured. We will serve the Lord!

COMMUNION PROCESSION Lord of the Dance Hymnal 166

1. I danced in the morning when the world was begun, And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun, And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth; At Bethlehem I had my birth.

Dance, then, wherever you may be; I am the Lord of the Dance, said he, And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be, And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.

- 2. I danced for the scribe and the pharisee, But they wouldn't dance, and they wouldn't follow me; I danced for the fishermen, for James and for John; They came with me and the dance went on.
- 3. I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame: The holy people, they said it was a shame. They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high, And left me there on the cross to die.
- 4. I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black, It's hard to dance with the devil on your back, They buried my body and they thought I'd gone, But I am the dance and I still go on.
- 5. They cut me down and I leap up high; I am the life that'll never never die; I'll live in you if you'll live in me: I am the Lord of the Dance said he.

Now the Green Blade Rises

Hymnal 346

1. Now the green blade rises from the buried grain. Wheat that in dark earth many days has lain; Love lives again, that with the dead has been; Love is come again like wheat arising green.
2. In the grave they laid him, love by hatred slain, Thinking that he would never wake again, Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen; Love is come again like wheat arising green.
3. Forth he came at Easter, like the risen grain, He that for three days in the grave had lain; Raised from the dead, my living Lord is seen; Love is come again like wheat arising green.
4. When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain, Your touch can call us back to life again, Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been; Love is come again like wheat arising green.

LEAVETAKING SONG Now All the Vault of Heaven Resound

Hymnal 345

1. Now all the vault of heav'n resounds In praise of love that still abounds: "Christ has triumphed! He is living!" Sing, choirs of angels, loud and clear! Repeat their song of glory here: "Christ has triumphed! Christ is triumphed!" Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
2. Eternal is the gift he brings. Therefore our heart with rapture sings: "Christ has triumphed! He is living!" Now still he comes to give us life And by his presence stills all strife. Christ has triumphed! He is living! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 3 Oh, fill us, Lord, with dauntless love; Set heart and will on things above That we conquer through your triumph; Grant grace sufficient for life's day That by our lives we truly say: Christ has triumphed! He is living! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
4. Adoring praises now we bring And with the heav'nly blessed sing: "Christ has triumphed! Alleluia!" Be to the Father and our Lord, To Spirit blest, most holy God, All the glory, never ending! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Text: Paul Z. Strodach (1876-1947), alt. in Lutheran Book of Worship.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist,
come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist,
come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the Paschal Mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

We Remember

We remember how you loved us to your death,
and still we celebrate, for you are with us here;
and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord. We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

Here, a million wounded souls are yearning just to touch you and be healed.

Gather all your people, and hold them to your heart.

We remember how you loved us to your death,
and still we celebrate, for you are with us here;
and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord. We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

Now we recreate your love, we bring the bread and wine to share a meal.

Sign of grace and mercy, the presence of the Lord.

We remember how you loved us to your death,
and still we celebrate, for you are with us here;
and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord. We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

Christ, the Father's great "Amen" to all the hopes and dreams of ev'ry heart,

Peace beyond all telling, and freedom from all fear.

We remember how you loved us to your death,
and still we celebrate, for you are with us here;
and we believe that we will see you when you come in your glory, Lord. We remember, we celebrate, we believe.

See the face of Christ revealed in ev'ry person standing by your side, Gift to one another, and temples of your love.

The Year of Parish Revival

Accept the Divine Mercy of Jesus

- God loves us and wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him, receive His mercy, and will come to share His joy. .
- How Can We Best Respond to God's Divine Mercy?
- It's All About Trust. When fears of the unknown or known origin, anxieties and confusion, and resentments all converge at once, we can easily ask ourselves this question. "What is it all about?"
- It is then that we scream, "Lord, what is it all about? Help! Mercy!"
- It is precisely, then, that we need to try to listen to the silent voice of God deep within our hearts, pleading with us, crying out like a voice in the desert, "Trust Me!" God speaks very loudly, but His language is usually silence.
- Once our hearts are stilled, His most common words to us are: "Do not be afraid. I am with you. Trust Me." Consider this verse from the Psalms: "Trust God at all times, my people! Pour out your hearts to God our refuge!" (Ps 62:9).
- Trust means to believe in Jesus, to love Him, and to hope in Him. It means to be totally absorbed in Jesus as our Lord and Savior, to rely completely on Him. When we really trust in Jesus we can say with the apostle St. Paul: "It is no longer I that live but Christ who lives in me" (Gal 2:20).
- But how do I trust? The Blessed Virgin Mary is our great example here as a model disciple of the Lord. We see her at the Annunciation completely abandoning herself to God's will when she was asked to be the Mother of God.
- We start by living the ABC's of Mercy
Ask for His Mercy; Be Merciful in all we do; Completely Trust in Jesus
- "The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is - trust. The more a soul trusts the more it will receive."
- "Souls that trust boundlessly are a great comfort to me, because I pour all the treasures of My graces into them. I rejoice that they ask for much, because it is My desire to give much, very much. I am sad when souls ask for little, when they narrow their hearts."

DISCERN THE VOCATION OF DEACON

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU | OFFICE OF PERMANENT

DEACON FORMATION

ABOUT US

The Permanent Deacon Formation Program is a five-year intensive program that prepares men spiritually, intellectually, and pastorally for Ordination. Men (and if married, their wives) will be formed and sent to teach, to guard and to bear witness to, and to serve the Church through their witness to Jesus, and their diaconal ministries of Word, Service and Charity.

INQUIRY WEEKENDS

These weekend retreats offer a spiritually enriching encounter, filled with valuable information, providing men and their wives a profound experience to deeply explore the diaconate vocation. Whether you've felt a diaconal calling or have just a faint inkling of one, you should attend. To be considered for the next cohort, applicants must attend one of these mandatory weekends, with their spouses if married.

- April 12 - 14
- May 3 - 5

MORE ABOUT RACHEL'S VINEYARD HAWAII

RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREATS

Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreats are a beautiful opportunity for any woman or man who has struggled with the emotional or spiritual pain of abortion. The weekend is a chance to get away from all the daily pressures of work and family and focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive and non-judgmental process. The time away provides an opportunity to deeply enter the grieving process and identify all the ways your abortion may have affected you.

Rachel's Vineyard has a number of powerful exercises, rooted in Scripture, which allow the soul to speak its grief and sorrow. These exercises help connect participants to their inner voice, to each other, and to the love and mercy of God. The exercises help participants to accept forgiveness for themselves and others. Participants are also given an opportunity to re-connect on a spiritual level with their children who have been aborted, to give them honor and dignity through many special and creative spiritual exercises as well as in a memorial service.

The weekend is a lot of work, but those who are willing to journey through their grief will experience the power of resurrection in their own lives. They will find meaning in what has happened and allow God to transform the experience into something that gives hope, liberation and peace.

Testimony: "This experience was life-changing for me! It freed me of the grief and guilt I carried for over 30 years. Even though I thought I was "tough" or "over it," nothing helped me or healed me more than my attending the RV retreat."

Dr. Theresa Burke and husband, Kevin Burke, founded Rachel's Vineyard Ministries' Weekend Retreats in 1995 in Philadelphia, PA. Dr. Burke created the retreat format after founding one of the first therapeutic support groups for post-aborted women and years of clinical work at The Center for Post Abortion Healing, founded in 1986.

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries Hawaii was established in 2009 as a program under the Respect Life Office of the Roman Catholic Church in Hawaii. Dr. Theresa Burke facilitated the first Hawaii retreat in September 2009 and provided a full-day's clinical training on the subject of Pregnancy Loss & Unresolved Grief to Hawaii's clergy/counselors/lay people/physicians. The RV team consists of a Catholic priest, professional counselor, facilitator, loving and non-judgmental lay volunteers, all who've participated on past RV retreats. We volunteer our time freely on the weekend because we understand the importance of healing and recovery surrounding the pain of abortion. We respect where each participant is in the grief process and we help each participant to move into a deeper level of healing.

Where Does the Name 'Rachel's Vineyard' Come From?

The name "Rachel" refers to an Old Testament figure. Rachel was written about in the book of Jeremiah: "Thus says the Lord: In Ramah is heard the sound of moaning, of bitter weeping! Rachel mourns her children, she refuses to be consoled because her children are no more.

Thus says the Lord: Cease your cries of mourning, wipe the tears from your eyes. The sorrow you have shown shall have its reward, says the Lord. There is hope for your future!" (Jeremiah 31:15-17)

Testimonies: "My husband and I both attended the RV Retreat. We both agree that it brought us closer to God and to each other. We received healing on so many levels. The love, warmth, and confidentiality were superb!"

"A family member & I attended RV; feeling nervous, the two of us were unsure of what to expect...at times it was an emotional roller coaster. We experienced safe lodging, meal nourishment, supportive environment; privacy of participants in mind at all times. The aftermath of the RV Retreat truly lifted my personal battle of burden which had been holding me hostage mentally and in my heart for over 35 years. We left the retreat with a renewed inner strength of confidence and a shared bonding experience which neither one of us will ever forget. Mahalo to the RV Team for doing what you do. Aloha & Mahalo, Ohana"

First RV Retreat in HI (Sept. 2009): Lisa Shorba, Dr. Theresa Burke, Sr. Geralyn Spaulding, O.S.B., and Rev. Khanh Pham-Nguyen.

"Jesus Himself said that He came to call sinners and not the self-righteous. I pray that all who participate in Rachel's Vineyard with the longing to be free and to be healed by Jesus, may find Him, the source of true joy, peace and love, and allow God to restore them to wholeness and happiness. I am praying much for you. God bless you."

~ Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Testimony: "As a man, abortion affects us in a unique way...Rachel's Vineyard helped me heal many wounds from the past. I learned to be compassionate with myself. As Christians, we all strive to forgive, but rarely do we have such an opportunity to really learn how to forgive. The experiential learning process engaged me into a deeper walk with my faith. Now I am able to pray more deeply and authentically...to understand my pain and walk with it. My relationship with my wife has greatly improved...I feel now I can be much more open with her and she can understand my feelings about children. I recommend RV for anyone who has been burdened with the loss of their child. You will be surrounded by loving people."

RETREAT REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Weekend retreats are 3 days & 2 nights and include overnight stay at a private retreat center. Accommodations, meals/ refreshments, and retreat materials are provided. Space is limited. A registration fee of $175 is required per participant. Need-based scholarships are available.

ABOUT RACHEL'S VINEYARD

Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreats for healing after abortion are offered throughout the year in 49 States and 70 countries (with many new sites in development).

The program is an opportunity to examine your abortion experience, identify the ways that the loss has impacted you in the past and present, and helps to acknowledge any unresolved feelings that many individuals struggle with after abortion.

Because of the emotional numbness and secrecy that often surrounds an abortion experience, conflicting emotions both during and after the event may remain unresolved. These buried feelings can surface later and may be symptoms of post abortion trauma.

It is often said that abortion is a woman's issue. However, both men and women are impacted by abortion and greatly benefit from the retreats. Married couples, mothers, fathers, siblings, and grandparents of aborted children have come to Rachel's Vineyard in search of peace and inner healing.
