ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

The Epiphany marks the arrival of visitors, identified in Scripture as the magi, to the place where Jesus was born. Although we know virtually nothing about them, we do know they brought three gifts: Gold—a symbol of wealth and power, identifies the recipient as a king. Frankincense—the crystalized resinous sap of a tree used as incense and as an offering, is symbolic of prayer. Myrrh—another resinous tree sap, was used in healing liniments and as an embalming ointment. Myrrh is an odd gift for a child—so, even at the beginning of Jesus' life on earth, this gift foreshadows his death.

Hospitality Weekend—Celebration of Fr. Vincent Vu's 2nd year in our Parish

This weekend after all Masses, plan to stay for refreshments on the Fellowship Lanai to celebrate Fr. Vincent's 2nd year anniversary (1/1/2024) with our parish.

We are a Culture of Life!

As we celebrate God incarnate, Jesus, given to us a baby child and raised within the Holy Family of Mary and Joseph, may we imitate the Magi in seeking the true light and meaning of God's love for each one of us. These events in January 2024 remind us that each person from conception to natural death has dignity, a purpose, and a gift to live every day fully in the freedom of Christ until called home to God for life eternal at His designated time.

- Friday, January 12 at 5:30 p.m. in the hall at St. Elizabeth Church, Aiea.
Presentation by Fr. Shenan J. Bouquet, President of Human Life International with light refreshments after. RSVP to Val Streff at vstreff@rcchawaii.org or 808-673-3074.
- Tuesday, January 16 at 9 a.m. at the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace
The Red Mass has been a tradition since 1955 for government officials and the community to gather at the beginning of the legislative session to pray together. Bishop Larry Silva will be the principal celebrant and the featured speaker is Eva Andrade, President of Hawaii Family Forum and Director of Hawaii Catholic Conference, speaking on "Navigating Politics with Positivity and Purpose."
- Thursday, January 18 at 6 p.m. at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa of the Child Jesus
Opening Mass for March for Life and Adoration with Bishop Larry Silva
- Friday, January 19 from 3—6 p.m. March for Life at the State Capitol, Honolulu
March for Life Rally 2024 under the theme Aloha Kekahi i Kekahi to Love One Another. We are called to love one another. Our prayers and presence in the public square can change policies to promote a Culture of Life!

St. Vincent de Paul Society

Today we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany, where the Magi find the newborn king and offer him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. In the spirit of the Magi, please put your gift in St. Vincent de Paul envelope so that comfort and peace can once again be given to a newborn child.

SCHOOL NEWS

After a three-week break for the holidays, our students, faculty and staff, will return to class on Monday, January 8, 2024. It is the mission of St. John Vianney School to develop the gifts of each child so they may fulfill their God-given potential. We provide a Catholic education that helps each student grow into the very best person they can be.

Our curriculum not only teaches students core subjects, it also instills values like teamwork, personal responsibility, and compassion. Our goal is to prepare each student for success in higher education. You may learn more about our school and students on both Facebook at www.facebook.com/sjvkailua and on Instagram at IG@sjv_kailua with news on how your parish school is inspiring hearts, minds and lives.

We are now accepting applications for new students for the 2024-2025 school year. Applications are available on our website at sjvkailua.org. For more information, and to learn of our tuition assistance programs, please call the school office at 808-261-4651.

Breakfast with the Bishop Tickets Now on Sale After Mass

St. John Vianney Parish School invites you to our 13th Annual "Breakfast with the Bishop" on January 28, 2024 in the Parish Hall at 8 a.m., 10 a.m. and noon. Plan to enjoy a delicious buffet served by our teachers and parents and live entertainment by our talented students. Several local celebrities will be special guests. Tickets are now on sale after all Masses; $20 for adults and $12 for students (15 years and under). Event sponsorship is still available.

NEWLY BAPTIZED NEVAEH K. DECOSTA

Ellen Huntley, who leads our lector ministry, is a proud grandmother. Her granddaughter Nevaeh K. DeCosta was baptized last Saturday, December 30, 2023 by Dcn. Francis Hai Pham at SJV. This was Dcn. Francis' first baptism here at St. John Vianney Parish, but his eighth overall. Angela Fargo De Costa (Nevaeh's mother) was 'born and raised' and received all her sacraments at SJV, including her marriage to Todd DeCosta. Pictured are Navaeh's older brothers Isaiah and Micah, also baptized here at SJV. It is a beautiful family legacy to all join the Body of Christ at SJV Parish!

CATHOLIC FAITH CORNER

A YEAR OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Introductory Rites of Mass

Different Parts of the Mass: Many of us may be cradle Catholics that have attended Mass for decades, and now maybe we just go through the motions without seeing the depth and beauty of the Mass as it unfolds around us. We might have never heard the meanings behind the postures, words, and images of the Mass.

Surely, the Liturgy Is Not Empty Routine.

Did you know that there are different parts to every Mass celebrated? They are: Introductory Rites, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Concluding Rites. We will deal with each part at length in the months ahead of us. We will try to explain terms, prayers, and actions that happen and why they happen. We start this January by looking at the Introductory Rites as well as the Liturgy of the Word.

Introductory Rites: The introductory Rites unite us as the Body of Christ and prepare us for worship. These include the Entrance Procession; Sign of the Cross and Greeting; Penitential Rite; Kyrie; Gloria – omitted during Lent/Advent; Opening Prayer or Collect.

Entrance Procession: Why doesn't the priest just start the Mass up at the altar? The priest and ministers (deacon, altar server and lectors) begin either just inside or just outside the rear door of the church. We stand at attention as a sign of respect for the priest, who during the liturgy will be representing Christ Himself, and for the book of the gospels. The procession is usually led by altar servers carrying candles that represent the Light of the World and a crucifix is also carried. So, if you looked at it another way; Christ (represented by the priest) processes through the Body of Christ (the assembled church members) while a deacon carries the Book of the Gospel (The actual words of Christ. And Christ being the Word made flesh) while altar servers carry the light of Christ (the candles), and another altar server carries an image of the crucified Christ. Isn't that symbolism just profoundly beautiful?!

Psalm 72³

Marty Haugen

Ev - 'ry na - tion on earth, ev - 'ry na - tion on earth, ev - 'ry na - tion a - dores you, Lord, yes, ev - 'ry na - tion on earth.

1. Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son. This one shall be the hope of the needy, the hope of the poor and oppressed.
2. May he reign while the sun endures for as long as the moon lights the sky. Fresh as the rainfall that waters the earth, gifting his people with peace.
3. He shall reign from sea to sea to the farthest ends of the earth. All of the nations shall praise and adore, all peoples will bring him their gifts.
4. He shall answer the poor when they call and shall hear the ones with no voice; mercy and help to the ones who are weak and freedom to all those enslaved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 147¹

Robert M. Mondoy

The word of God be-came man and lived a-mong us.

1. O praise the Lord, Jerusalem! O Zion, praise, O Zion praise your God for he strengthened the bars of your gates, for he has blessed the children within you.
2. He brings peace to your borders, he feeds you with the finest wheat. He send out his Word to the earth and swiftly, swiftly runs his command.
3. He makes his word known to Jacob and to Israel his laws and decrees. For he has done the same for no one else; Alleluia, alleluia!

COMMUNION PROCESSION SONGS God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen Hymnal/Carols 55

1. God rest you merry, gentlemen Let nothing you dismay,
For Jesus Christ our Savior Was born upon this day,
To save us all from Satan's power When we were gone astray

O Tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy;
O Tidings of comfort and joy.

2. In Bethlehem in Judah This blessed babe was born,
And laid within a manger Upon this blessed morn
For which his mother Mary Did nothing take in scorn.

3. From God our great Creator A blessed angel came
And unto certain shepherds Brought tidings of the same,
How that in Bethlehem was born The Son of God by name.

4. The shepherds at those tidings Rejoic-ed much in mind
And left their flocks a-feeding In tempest, storm, and wind,
And went to Bethlehem straight-way, The blessed babe to find.

5. Now to the Lord sing praises, All you within this place,
And with true love and charity Each other now embrace;
This holy tide of Christmas All others shall replace,

Text: English Carol, 18th cent.

Tune: GOD REST YOU MERRY, 18th cent. English

No. 44 “As With Gladness”

66. Mary's Little Boy Child

1. Long time ago in Bethlehem so the Holy Bible say, Mary's boy child, Jesus Christ, was born on Christmas day.

Hark now hear the angels sing, New King's born today,
And all will live forevermore because of Christmas day.

2. While shepherds watched their flocks by night they saw a bright, new, shining star and heard a choir from Heaven sing, The music came from afar. [above]

3. Now Joseph and his wife Mary came to Bethlehem that night, They found no place to bear her child, Not a single room was in sight. By and by they found a little nook in a stable all forlorn, And in a manger cold and dark, Mary's little boy child was born.

Trumpets sound and angels sing, Listen to what they say,
That all will live forevermore, because of Christmas day. [bis]

St. John Vianney

The Year of Parish Revival

The Introductory Rite and the Liturgy of the Word

- When we walk through the church doors we first bless ourselves with the sign of the cross, connecting us with the greater community of all Catholics, both around the world and those living and deceased.
- The service begins as the Priest, ministers and servers enter and process down the center aisle toward the sanctuary. The servers lead with a cross. A deacon carries the Book of the Gospels, which he will place on the altar. We stand to praise God in song.
- When they reach the sanctuary, they bow before the table of God, in reverence to the presence of God among us. The Priest and deacons then approach the altar and kiss it, in reverence of the sacrifice Christ paid for our salvation.
- The Priest begins saying: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" and makes the sign of the cross. This gesture identifies us as a baptized people, redeemed by Christ.
- The Priest greets us with "The Lord be with you." proclaiming the Lord's presence among us. This greeting is a shortened version of the greeting given by Paul: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all." We respond, "And with your spirit," also acknowledging Christ's presence.
- We are then asked to call to mind our sins and ask God for mercy, repeating "Lord have mercy" three times. We take part in this Act of Penitence, not out of guilt, but out of the loving mercy of the Lord.
- All sing (or say) "The Gloria" a hymn of praise; a very ancient and venerable hymn. The Gloria begins by echoing the proclamation of the angels at the birth of Christ: "Glory to God in the highest!" The Priest says the opening prayer, which concludes the Introductory Rite of the Mass.
- We are now asked to sit and listen to three readings from the holy Bible. The Liturgy of the Word is comprised of three scripture readings, a homily, the profession of faith, and the prayers of the faithful.
- The first reading is mostly chosen from the Old Testament. It usually complements the Gospel reading by revealing the continuity between Israel and Jesus who comes not to replace but to fulfill. Afterwards we recite or sing a Psalm as a prayerful response to what we have heard.
- The second reading, usually from the New Testament, focusses on situations in the early Church that transcends the centuries to influence us today.
- We then stand and sing the Alleluia, which announces the Gospel reading. "Alleluia," is a Latin echo of the Hebrew acclamation "Praise God!" The church deacon (or the priest) goes to the altar, lifts the Gospel book and processes with the book held high.
- We remain standing during the Gospel reading to witness Christ's resurrection" and trace the sign of the cross on the forehead, the lips and over the heart, to remind us to keep "Christ in our thoughts," Christ in what we say" and "Christ in our hearts".
- We sit to listen to the homily, which is different than a sermon in that it's an explanation and reflection on the Word of God showing us how the word of God addresses us today.
- We stand to recite the ancient prayer of faith, the Nicene Creed, which sums up all the teaching of the Church and what we believe as Christians.
- The minister then reads our petitions to God for the needs of the Church, society, the parish, people in need, the sick and suffering, and those who have died. We are asked to add any petitions in our heart, which concludes this part of the Mass.
